

CU-Colorado Springs
Fall 2003

ID101 Life and Death Service Learning Contract

Complete Section 1 of this form and ask your professor to complete Section 2. You will be provided a copy of the completed form.

SECTION 1

(Please print clearly)

Your Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____ Best time to reach you _____

Service: What exactly do you expect to do? Briefly describe the nature of the service work you are doing and why you have chosen it.

Learning: What do you expect to learn from the experience? (e.g., information and understanding about the elderly).

Skills: What skills do expect to develop and learn from this experience? (e.g., communication skills, writing, problem solving, etc.)

I agree to devote at least 12-15 hours this semester between the dates of _____ and _____ at (project location/name) _____.

I also agree to meet the academic or learning requirements that my professor has indicated in the course syllabus in order to receive three hours of academic credit for this service learning course.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

CU-Colorado Springs
Fall 2001

SECTION 2

(To be completed by Professor)

The student will participate in this service learning project to meet the requirements of ID101- Freshman Seminar/Life and Death. In addition to the 12-15 hours of service required, the student will complete the following service learning-related assignments/requirements for the course by the scheduled due dates:

Journals _____

Oral Presentation and Paper _____

Volunteer Hour Report _____

Additional elaboration or evidence of academic work needed:

Signature: _____ Date: _____